Benefits of Registering Your TV to Your Amazon Prime Account

- Access to exclusive Prime Video content: Prime members have access to a wide range of exclusive movies and TV shows. When you register your TV to your Amazon Prime account, you'll be able to access this content directly on your TV.
- Use your voice to control your TV: With Alexa built-in, you can use your voice to control your TV. You can say things like "Alexa, turn on the TV" or "Alexa, play the next episode." Registering your TV to your Amazon Prime account will give you access to all of Alexa's voice control features.
- Personalized recommendations: Amazon Prime uses your viewing history to recommend movies and TV shows that you might like. When you register your TV to your Amazon Prime account, you'll get personalized recommendations based on what you've watched in the past.
- Parental controls: Amazon Prime offers a variety of parental controls that allow you to restrict access to certain types of content. When you register your TV to your Amazon Prime account, you'll be able to set up parental controls to protect your children from inappropriate content.
