

The Kid Who Became President: The Story of Luke Rosiak, the Kid Who Ran for President

In the 2020 presidential election, one candidate stood out from the rest: Luke Rosiak, a 10-year-old boy from Ohio. Despite his young age, Rosiak ran a serious campaign, complete with a website, campaign ads, and a team of volunteers.

Rosiak's campaign platform was based on three main issues: education, healthcare, and the environment. He promised to make college tuition-free, provide universal healthcare, and protect the planet from climate change.
