The Bastable children are a lively and imaginative bunch. Oswald is the eldest, and he is always coming up with new schemes. Dora is the youngest, and she is always ready to follow her brother's lead. The other Bastable children include Dicky, Alice, Noel, Horace, and Hennie. They are all very different, but they all share a love of adventure.

One day, the Bastable children overhear their father talking about a hidden treasure. They are all very excited, and they decide to set out to find it. They have no idea where the treasure is, but they are determined to find it. They search high and low, and they have many adventures along the way.

The Bastable children are not the only ones who are looking for the treasure. There is also a group of criminals who are after it. The criminals are led by a man named Mr. Grimes, and they are very dangerous. The Bastable children must be careful not to get caught by Mr. Grimes and his gang.

In the end, the Bastable children find the treasure. They are very happy, and they decide to use the money to help their family. The Story of Treasure Seekers is a heartwarming story about family, friendship, and adventure. It is a classic that has been enjoyed by generations of readers.
